[XXIst Year.] THURSDAY, July 3, 1766. [No. 1086.]

MADRID, March 27.

AS the Spaniſh Dreſs made it difficult to diſtinguiſh one Perſon from another; and as the Authors of many Diſorders lately committed here, eſpecially in the Night, thereby eſcaped Diſcovery; the King, to prevent theſe Abuſes, iſſued an Ordinance, forbidding the Uſe of flapped Hats and long Cloaks, &c. and ordered 5000 Lamps to be hung up for lighting the City. The Perſons charged by the Miniſtry with the Execution of this Ordinance, having acted with an ill-judged Rigour, the Populace roſe againſt them. On the 23d, about Four in the Afternoon, a Troop of Mutineers appeared in the Streets with flapped Hats and long Cloaks; and after having forced the Guard, which attempted to ſtop them, they attacked the Houſe of the Preſident of the Council, and that of the Marquis de Squillace, Miniſter of Finances: They broke all the Lamps, and obliged every Perſon they met with, either on Foot or in Carriages, to let down the Brims of their Hats. Towards Nine in the Evening ſome Patroles of Horſe and Foot were detached from the Palace, who diſperſed the Mutineers; and at Midnight Tranquility was entirely re-eſtabliſhed in all the Quarters of the City; but the next Day, at Seven in the Morning, the People aſſembled again, and upwards of Thirty Thouſand of them, both Men and Women, marched towards the Palace, crying, Long live the King! The Sieur O'Reilly, Field-Marſhal, to whom the King had given the Command of all the Troops that were at Madrid, propoſed to his Majeſty the diſperſing of this ſeditious Mob, by employing againſt them the Means of Force and Rigour; but his Majeſty expreſſed the greateſt Repugnance to ſhedding the Blood of his Subjects; ſome Muſkets were, however, fired, which killed ſix or ſeven Perſons. The King thought proper at laſt to ſhew himſelf, about Five in the Evening, in the great Balcony, in the Middle of the Palace, whither the Mutineers ran in Shoals, ſtill crying, Long live the King! They demanded, 1ſt, the Repeal of the Edict for altering their Dreſs; 2dly, the leſſening the Price of Bread and Oil; and 3dly, the Suppreſſion of the Company which had undertaken to furniſh Madrid with Proviſions. His Majeſty deigned to grant what they demanded, and they retired with the moſt lively Demonſtrations of Joy and Submiſſion. All being thus pacified, the King thought proper to ſet out the 25th in the Morning for Aranjuez. As ſoon as the People heard of this, they mutinied again, under Pretence that their Fidelity was ſuſpected, and demanded that the King ſhould return to his Capital. His Majeſty ſent Anſwer that he doubted not the Fidelity of his Subjects; but that he ſhould not return to Madrid till Order and Tranquility were perfectly re-eſtabliſhed. This Anſwer of the King having been communicated to the People the 26th in the Morning, by the Secretary of the Council of Caſtile, all the Mutineers ſeparated immediately, after delivering up the Arms which they had ſeized, and from that Moment all has been quiet.

April 1. The King, and all the Royal Family, are ſtill at Aranjuez. The City of Toledo has ſent Deputies to the King, to offer him the Lives and Fortunes of all its Inhabitants, and to preſent him with the Sum of 300,000 Reals. The Chapter of the Cathedral of the ſame City has alſo ſent a Deputation to his Majeſty, and preſented to him 360,000 Reals. It appears that all the other Cities of the Kingdom intend to follow the Example. Several have already nominated Deputies for this Purpoſe; and the whole Nation is eager to give the King the moſt ſtriking Teſtimonies of Zeal, Love, and Reſpect.

LONDON, April 1.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Ireland to his Friend in London, relative to the laſt Aſſizes at Clonmell.

"There was a very dangerous, ugly Trial at our laſt Aſſizes. A Popiſh Prieſt was found guilty and executed, for the Murder of a Boy that would have appeared as an Evidence againſt him for thoſe Riſings that for ſome Time have engroſſed the Attention of the Public: The Government thought there was nothing in them, and diſregarded thoſe Reports that are now found to be true, and which if not early prevented they would have ſenſibly felt; for it is now paſt Contradiction, that a Rebellion, and a Maſſacre of the Proteſtants, was to have been the Concluſion of thoſe nightly Meetings and Revellings, which they concealed under the ſpecious Name of Self-Preſervation; as they pretended there was ſo much Ground untilled, that they had not ſufficient to ſubſiſt on. But, thank GOD, the Scheme is now found out; and there are many Men of Property who it is believed will ſuffer. It clearly appeared upon the Trial of the Prieſt, that there had been French Officers in the Kingdom, and that they diſtributed Money to favour thoſe Diſturbances that they were in hopes ſoon of effecting; and, as a proper Emiſſary for their helliſh Purpoſes, this Prieſt was pitched on as a Man endowed by Nature with thoſe miſchievous Qualities that were neceſſary to put their Projects in Execution."

April 24. It is reported, that the Right Hon. Lord Mount Stewart, will be nominated to go Ambaſſador to Vienna, in the Room of Lord Viſcount Stormont.

The Friends of a celebrated Partizan now begin to give out, that the Bill of Outlawry will ſoon be reverſed in Favour of that Gentleman's Return to his native Country.

They write from Edinburgh, that ſeveral Perſons had been taken up in the Shire of Inverneſs, for enliſting Highlanders into foreign Service.

Letters from Vienna of the 8th of March, bring Advice, that four Soldiers belonging to the Empreſs-Queen's Troops had deſerted, and being afterwards taken, they were condemned to draw Lots, for one to be Shot out of the four. Three of them drew, but the fourth proteſted he would not, becauſe her Imperial and Royal Majeſty had juſt forbid, under ſevere Penalties, all Sorts of Games of Chance; and added, that he could not give a greater Token of his Repentance, than by his Obedience to her Laws. Upon this the Execution was ſuſpended, and Advice ſent to Court of the whole Affair; and it is aſſured that Orders were ſent to pardon them all.

May 3. It is thought the late Commotions in Spain, will be attended with conſiderable Advantages to Great-Britain. That Affair manifeſtly proves that the Bourbon Family Compact, is by no Means agreeable to the Senſe and Inclinations of the native Spaniards; that they diſapprove of ſuch a cloſe Connection with France, and conſequently we, as well as other Nations, may look upon that Compact in a leſs formidable Light. It ſhews, that the native Spaniards have an Antipathy to the French Nation, their Modes and Faſhions; and alſo that they have an Affection for the Engliſh, and deſire to live in Friendſhip with them. As it demonſtrates, that the People of Spain do not like to be led by the Noſe by France, and to be drawn by her into a Quarrel with England, ſo it may very likely tend to prolong the Peace. His Catholic Majeſty's Army of native Spaniards refuſing to fire upon their Fellow Subjects, affords a very inſtructive Leſſon to all ambitious and arbitrary Princes, as it ſhews them, that their native Soldiery will not be concerned in carrying on violent Meaſures, and deſtroying the Rights, Liberties, and Lives of their Fellow Subjects; and the Walloon Guards firing upon the Spaniards, is a ſtriking Proof, which the People of every Country ſhould take eſpecial Notice of, how dangerous it is to ſuffer their Princes to keep foreign Troops in the Nation. It likewiſe affords a very uſeful Leſſon to all Miniſters and Favourites, as it ſhews them, that no Favour of their Prince can be ſufficient to protect them againſt the Reſentment of an injured and enraged People.

We are informed, that the Pope's Gallies will be employed this Summer, in carrying over the Biſhop of his Church to Canada, whom he is ſaid to have obtained Leave to ſend thither; together with a proper Cargo of Relicts, Indulgences, and other Popiſh Valuables.

May 5. Yeſterday his Majeſty went in State to the Houſe of Peers, attended by his Grace the Duke of Rutland, Maſter of the Horſe, and the Earl of Pomfret, one of the Lords of the Bed-Chamber, when his Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to the following Bill, among others, viz.

The Bill to puniſh Mutiny and Deſertion in the American Colonies.

Extract of a Letter from France, April 28.

"You muſt have heard, I ſuppoſe, of the Inſurrections in Spain, on account of the Prime Miniſter Squillace. He arrived at Bourdeaux laſt Monday, and eſcaped through Spain in a Diſguiſe of a Footman."

May 9. We hear the Right Hon. Mr. Secretary Conway will ſoon be complimented with the Freedom of the City of London in a Gold Box.

FROM THE KINGSTON JOURNAL.

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) May 24.

Monday arrived the Jamaica Planter, Captain Furnell, from London, who brought an Account of the Repeal of the deteſtable Stamp Law; and we hear, a Commiſſion from his Majeſty, appointing Roger Hope Elleſton, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of this Iſland.——And on Tueſday arrived the Sally, Captain Cummins, with a full Confirmation of the above Intelligence, having brought the London Gazette of the 18th of March, wherein was inſerted his Majeſty's Royal Aſſent to the ſame; and alſo the Repeal Act of which an Extract is inſerted this Day.——JOYFUL NEWS INDEED!——Thurſday Evening was appointed for celebrating this Glorious News, the Honble the Cuſtos, with ſeveral of the Magiſtrates, and Inhabitants met at the Court-Houſe, where an handſome Cold Collation was prepared by Mr. J. Baggs. The Gentlemen Grenadiers, Light Infantry, and Half-Boot Blues, cloathed in their Uniforms, met on the Occaſion, and fired three Vollies as a Feu de Joye. The Grenadiers and Light Infantry then retired to Rawleigh and Kemp's Coffee-Houſe; and the Blues to Tillaſdam's, where they ſpent the Evening with the greateſt Jollity.——The Gentlemen of the Light-Infantry had prepared an Emblematical Flag, repreſenting LIBERTY TRIUMPHANT, and an Odious STAMP-MAN imploring Forgiveneſs for his many Notorious Oppreſſions and Extortions during the Exerciſe of his moſt deteſtable Function; and alſo, an Effigy of the Grand Promoter and Friend to the STAMP-LAW, which after being ignominiouſly brought to the Coffee Houſe in a Cart, was hung up to the Sign-Poſt, while a Bonfire was made, in which he was conſumed. The Town was finely illuminated, many loyal Toaſts were drank, and the Evening concluded with the greateſt Harmony, Decency and Decorum.

WILMINGTON, (N. Carolina) April 9.

By a Gentleman from Eaſt-Florida, by Land, who left it the 9th of March, we are informed, that the Inhabitants are at preſent very Healthy; that a Ship had arrived there from New York with Proviſions; that the Country is ſo very fertile, that an old Midwife aged 70, who had not been there above Three Months, was found Pregnant; that the People there ſhowed as great Reſentment to the Stamp-Act, as any perhaps on the Continent: By this we are convinced, that the Sons of Liberty are diſperſed thro' all the Provinces on the Continent.——N. B. The Midwife had no Huſband, ſo that her Pregnancy muſt have been owing to the FERTILITY OF THE SOIL.

BOSTON, June 16.

On Wedneſday laſt the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives voted, that Galleries be fixed to accommodate any Gentlemen that may be deſirous of Hearing the Debates in the Aſſembly; and the next Morning the Gallery at the Weſt End of the Repreſentatives Room was opened, and the following Order paſſed the Houſe, viz. "That no Perſon be admitted to a Seat in the Gallery, without applying to, and being introduced by a Member of this Houſe."

We hear from Newport, Rhode-Iſland, that on the 7th Inſt. about Noon, the magnificent Manſion-Houſe of Godfrey Malbone, Eſq; was entirely reduced to the Ground by Fire, occaſioned by ſome Sparks from the Chimney falling on the Roof. It is judg'd that it was the moſt coſtly Building on the Continent. We hear that they had Time to ſave ſome of the moſt valuable Furniture.

The

The ſame Day Capt. Somes arrived here from Halifax, by whom we learn, that his Excellency Montague Wilmott, Eſq; Lieutenant Colonel of his Majeſty's 45th Regiment of Foot, and Governor of the Province of Nova-Scotia, died there the 23d of laſt Month.

NEW-YORK, June 19.

On Sunday laſt arrived a Tranſport from Penſacola, with Troops.—They bring Advice, that the Spaniſh Governor (accompanied with a Prieſt) was arrived at New-Orleans, in order to take Poſſeſſion of that Place.—The Spaniſh Soldiers were not arrived, but ſoon expected, till when, the French Garriſon were to remain and do Duty.—It was propoſed to ſeveral of them to inliſt in the Spaniſh Service, but they generally refuſed with Diſdain. Veſſels were provided for ſuch of the Inhabitants as choſe to embark for France, which when they were preparing to do, the Prieſt urged their complying with the Spaniſh Cuſtom, of confeſſing before their Departure: The French inſiſted on their Right of Choice, either to confeſs or not, according to the Cuſtom of France; on which an Uproar and great Confuſion enſued.—But as they were not ſuffered to depart without Confeſſion, at length the greateſt Part complied rather than be detained; but were highly exaſperated at the Compulſion, declaring that they would rather live under the Turkiſh than the Spaniſh Government.

The Freemen and Freeholders of the City of New-York, are requeſted to meet at the Houſe of Mr. Richard Howard, To-morrow in the Afternoon, at Five o'Clock, in order to chooſe a Committee to inſtruct their Members to move in the Houſe of Aſſembly, that Proviſion be made for erecting a Statue to Mr. PITT, in Teſtimony of the grateful Senſe they entertain of his Services to the American Colonies; and to write Letters of Thanks to all thoſe illuſtrious Perſonages who have ſo zealouſly exerted themſelves in both Houſes of Parliament, in obtaining the Repeal of the Stamp-Act.

June 23. Yeſterday Capt. Tudor arrived here from St Kitts, where had been made equal Rejoicings on the Repeal of the Stamp-Act to any yet ſhewn; ſo likewiſe in moſt of the Iſlands. General THOMAS had departed for England, after the moſt affectionate Expreſſions had paſſed reciprocally the different Branches of the Legiſlature, in their Acknowledgment of his upright Adminiſtration, and in his Return of Thanks.

Proviſions are ſo ſcarce in So. Carolina, that an Ordinance has paſſed the Legiſlature to prohibit the Exportation of Rice; and for ſupplying the Inhabitants of that Province, who are in want thereof, at the Price and for the Time therein limited.

The MARYLAND LOTTERY.

IT is thought proper that the Public should be acquainted with the Quality of the Land (lying in Kent County) which make a Part of the Prizes.

It is chiefly uncultivated, abounds with great Plenty of Stave, Plank, white and red Oak, and Ship Timber.

There is also a great deal of low flat Land, capable of producing Hemp, and making excellent Meadows; a large Range of flat Land for Cattle, Hogs and other Wood Stock; the Woods producing great Quantities of Acorn Masts; it lies convenient for the Head of Chester and Sassafras Rivers, and Duck-Creek.

Upon the Whole this Estate is capable of producing very great Profit to Persons who give the least Attention to the Improvement of Land. Kent is the Garden of the Continent, nay, there is not a County in the Dominion of Great-Britain superior to it.

The Scheme consists of Eight Thousand Tickets at Two Dollars each, all are Prizes, which will be delivered to the Adventurers at New-York, Philadelphia, Boston, and the Place of Drawing, Annapolis.

A few Tickets still remain unsold, occasioned by the late total Stop to Business and other Discouragements too obvious to be related, but now, the whole Empire is rejoicing on the Triumph of a most righteous Administration over the Enemies of America, the Proprietor hopes this Design will engage the Attention of the Public, and that the Sale of the Tickets will soon be compleated, as the Time for Drawing is at Hand.

The Scheme at large, and the Tickets are to be had of the Proprietor, James Rivington, at Annapolis.
